

ATTENTION CLUB MEMBERS
and EDUCATION STUDENTS!!!

Space is limited for this great workshop opportunity! Come see "The Sisters," authors of The Daily Five at ESD 113 in Olympia.

The price was negotiated down from $135.

The new prices are as follows:

$75 if you do not own The Daily Five.

$50 if you do own The Daily Five.

The Educators of Tomorrow Club has also secured $25 scholarships for 20 members who wish to attend the workshop.

Submit your application for registration and payment with
Dr. Maureen Sierra

South Sound WORD Council
Proudly Presents:

"The Sisters"
Gail Boushey and Joan Moser

Saturday, December 2, 2006
ESD 113 in Olympia
9:00am to 3:30pm

Exactly What is the Rest of the Class Doing During Small Group Instruction, One on One Confering or Individual Assessment?

The Daily's of course! Join the sisters in this lively and engaging session, as they introduce you to the components of The Daily's, an elegantly simple structure designed to support and develop independent, motivated students who are engaged for long periods of time in the actual act of reading. Lesson plans will be shared to start your children ~~on the road to independence and high achievement while~~ allowing your teaching and assessing to be more focused and productive.

Read more about Gail and Joan at Stenhouse.com and their new book called The Daily Five.
Workshop registration will include a copy of their book.

Send in your registration fee soon! This workshop will fill up fast!

You are in for a wonderful day of learning!

Questions:

Cheryl Vance, vances@localaccess.com 748-1158 or 464-6706

Joan Bower, jmbower@earthlink.net

Registration Deadline: November 22, 2006

Name _____

School _____

Address _____

City _____

Phone _____

WORD member: _____yes _____no

Workshop fee $135.00, includes membership for this year, continental breakfast, book & handouts.

(Lunch is on your own)

Please send check and form to:

South Sound WORD Council

2006 Roxburg CT. SE

Olympia, WA 98513

Clock hours will be available through ESD 113**

Be sure to sign in and pick up the forms at the workshop.

See you in December!